Suzi Pomerantz, MT, MCC is an award-winning executive coach, speaker, facilitator, and author with over 16 years of coaching and teaching experience working with leaders and teams in over 135 organizations internationally across Government Agencies and private sector clients, including seven companies on the Fortune 100 list. Suzi specializes in coaching at the intersection of leadership and business development, with a particular emphasis on integrating brand and social media into your strategy. A coaching veteran in the legal industry, Suzi has coached leaders in seven corporate law departments and a dozen law firms. Other industry experience includes: consulting, financial services, manufacturing, hospitality, entrepreneurial enterprises, federal and state government, educational institutions, membership-based service entities, and executive MBA programs.

Suzi's strength lies in helping leaders and organizations find clarity within chaos. Her no-nonsense approach is professional, strategic, conversational, analytical and results-oriented. She was one of the first executive coaches to receive the Master Coach credential from the International Coach Federation over 11 years ago and is considered a thought leader in the coaching industry.

Suzi helps executives, teams and high performing, high-potential future leaders to clarify their vision and exceed prior performance. She provides executive coaching, team/group coaching, and emerging leader coaching in organizations to assist executives and their teams with setting strategic direction, managing talent, and developing leadership bench strength. She also develops leaders in teambuilding, sales, effective meetings, interpersonal savvy, and facilitating change. Suzi's coaching work with scientists, researchers, and administrative operational leaders focuses on developing emotional intelligence, leadership acumen and skills to help navigate in a high-pressure, high-growth environment. PhD clients cite results of her coaching that include increased confidence, improved strategic visibility, an ability to successfully navigate the political landscape, leadership influence, and an improved ability to balance the demands and stresses of work with life. She helps organizations develop and retain leadership capacity by coaching leaders in executive presence, presentation skills, personal power, communication, and vision work.

A recognized leader passionate about integrity, legacy, impact, and leadership excellence in organizations and stewardship of the profession of coaching, Suzi
